

Pleasant View Home Quarterly Newsletter

Well its that time of year again! A time when the leaves begin to changes into all the beautiful shades of autumn, harvest is in full swing, and we start planning for the upcoming holiday season! We have so many fun plans for the holiday season here at Pleasant View Home, one of which is our annual Gift Day celebration!

Gift Day this year will bring back the community meal and also feature an online Auction. Gift Day will be celebrated at the Inman Community Center on November 10th and will feature a meal of Chili/Chicken Noodle Soup and Cinnamon rolls with the fixings! The online auction will go live a few weeks prior to Gift Day so please be sure to keep an eye on our Facebook page for more details as we get closer!

A special thanks to Paula Miller, our Marketing Director, for all her hard work in putting this together each year for our residents and community as well as a thank you to all of our donors and vendors who supply the items for the raffle and supper! Have a Happy Holiday season everyone!

Some of our residents got to go to the Kansas State Fair to enjoy some time out in the community! It is so nice to get to take our residents out on outings after a long hiatus due to Covid. It was so good to see them smile and enjoy all the vendors, food, and animals!

Happy Birthday!!!

We had a very special birthday September 11th as our own Anna Grace turned 100! We enjoyed celebrating with her with family with cake and many laughs! Here's to many more birthdays Anna Grace!

John 6:54
Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

Pastors and preachers learn very quickly that their message may encourage some in their audience, but also may disturb others. Moreover, some may leave the room feeling very confused. On this day Jesus was speaking to a crowd in Capernaum, His "home town" in the days of His public ministry. The words that He used are very graphic, and potentially also very disturbing; for He spoke of "eating His flesh," and "drinking His blood." What kind of talk is this? Well, for one thing, as with any speaker, don't take every word that he says LITERALLY! When Jesus spoke of "eating" and "drinking," the reader and listener should not take them literally, no more so than when Jesus told Nicodemus (John 3) that he needed to be "born again." Likewise when He told the Samaritan woman – "the water that I shall give...will become in him a fountain of water springing up into everlasting life" (John 4:14).

Reading the whole discourse (John 6:32-64), it becomes obvious that Jesus used graphic wording to stimulate their faith in Him, that if they would truly appropriate Him into their lives, they would gain the assurance of eternal life, and the confidence that their dead bodies one day would be resurrected (John 6:54). Many chose not to follow the Lord after this discourse (v. 66); but some like Peter stayed with Him, indicating that their faith truly was in Him; for Peter said, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life; and we have come to believe and know that You are the Christ, the Son of the living God" (v. 69).
